

PEACE MAY BE HALTED BY ACTION OF ITALY

Latins Demand Territorial Claims Be Recognized by "Big Four."

WILSON WON'T CHANGE DECISION ON TREATIES

Japanese Push Request for Early Settlement of the Shantung Situation

BY FRED S. FERGUSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
PARIS, April 18.—The Italians are reported to have threatened to block the entire peace settlement unless their claims are recognized. This developed today when the "Big Four" again took up Italy's territorial aspirations.

According to reliable information the Italians have now taken the position that the pact of London, on which their claims are based, not only grants them the entire program they are demanding but pledges the allies to stand together for simultaneous peace.

As the Italians see it they could overturn the whole peace settlement by refusing to accept any treaty not meeting their claims—then calling upon the signatories of the pact of London to live up to their agreement against arranging a separate peace.

The signatories to the pact of London, consummated in 1915, were Italy, Great Britain, France and Russia. Under this agreement Italy was given certain territorial concessions for entering the war on the side of the Allies.

Certain of the Allies, led by the Americans, have maintained that acceptance of the armistice terms abrogated all secret treaties. President Wilson, who has been placed in a position of virtual arbitrator of the rival claims of the Italians and Jugo-Slavs, has made it known that he will not deviate from the stand that this dispute must be settled according to the fourteen points.

The Jugo-Slav delegation, it developed today, has written to Premier Clemenceau asking that the future of Fiume and Dalmatia be solved by a plebiscite under the recognized principle of self-determination.

Japanese to Appear
The Japanese, in pushing their demands for early settlement of the Shantung situation, are expected to appear before the Big Four tomorrow or Sunday. They are insistent that their claims to ratification of concessions in the Shantung peninsula—which are bitterly opposed by the Chinese—be recognized at once, it is understood. General sentiment, however, appeared to favor the Chinese in this dispute.

All commissions, with the exception of the one considering conflicting Polish and German boundary claims, have completed their work. It is expected there will be two plenary sessions next week, possibly on Thursday and Friday. The League of Nations covenant and reports of the various commissions probably will be submitted at the first session. The entire treaty would be taken up at the second. Both meetings are expected to be secret.

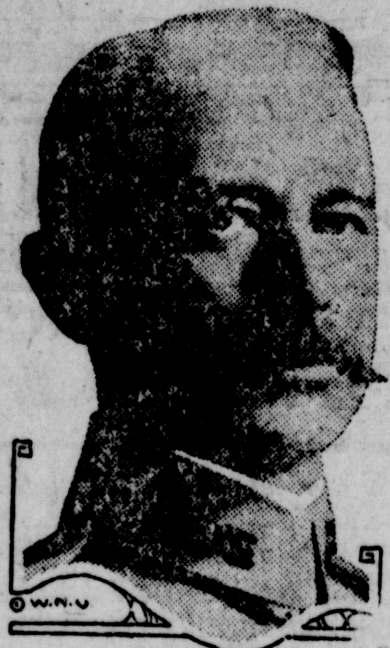

Guests in the hotels Vatel and Des Reservoirs at Versailles were being ousted today to make room for the German delegates. It was believed that quarters in other hotels might also be requisitioned.

Enemy Will Meet "Big Four"
According to the latest report the enemy representatives will be met only by the "Big Four"—President Wilson, Premier Lloyd-George, Premier Clemenceau and Premier Orlando—who will formally present the treaty, after which the German delegation will return with it to Weimar where it will be discussed by the German government and possibly the national assembly.

Guarantees understood to have been given France remain a mystery. They are surrounded by the greatest secrecy and it could not be ascertained whether they will be included in the treaty or in a separate agreement.

Taking the solution of the Saar valley problem as a precedent, the Belgians are proposing adoption of a plan for making up their country's industrial losses. They urge that a number of German factories in the occupied area be turned over to Belgium and operated for the Belgians' benefit until the latter's plants are restored.

LOS ANGELES, April 18.—Burglars early last night ransacked the fashionable home of Mrs. Lola Carrillo in West Adams street and while the family slept escaped with $5000 worth of silver and gold plate, other valuables and Liberty Bonds. More than 60,000 phones are out of commission. Anti-Saloon League Head Says Congress Will Be Asked for Measure

WOULD PUT BAN ON RECIPE PAMPHLETS

Legislation Similar to the Barkley Prohibition Bill Favored

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Drys are relying on congress to settle at one stroke the question of who will enforce both wartime and constitutional prohibition. E. C. Dinwiddie, head of the Anti-Saloon League of America, announced today.

Dinwiddie said his organization very early in the coming session would urge enactment of a bill to put enforcement of both brands of prohibition in the hands of the commissioner of internal revenue.

"The debate as to who will enforce prohibition has been raised by the opposition in desperation," said Dinwiddie. "We believe that time can be saved by combining measures for enforcement of both wartime and constitutional prohibition in one law modeled after the Barkley bill, which was reported favorably by the house judiciary committee in the last congress but failed to pass."

The Barkley bill, which Anti-Saloon League officials helped frame, provides for prohibition enforcement through both the treasury department and department of justice, but the principal burden is placed on a "law enforcement commissioner."

The bill defined intoxicating liquor as that containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol.

Dinwiddie also declared the Anti-Saloon League plans to ask legislation preventing the sale of books and pamphlets giving receipts for intoxicating liquors.

"The distribution of such literature is not illegal now but we hope to make it so," Dinwiddie said.

Most of the women examined expressed strong opinions against any form of radicalism, holding such views to be unpatriotic.

Six Jurors Passed in Trial of Mayor Woodman; Crack Shot Guards the Door

LOS ANGELES, April 18.—That a woman member of the police department had spirited Dorothy Coy, a woman witness in the case against Mayor Woodman, out of Los Angeles and to Salt Lake created the first sensation today in the trial of Mayor Woodman which opened yesterday morning. Assistant District Attorney W. J. Clark made the charge.

Aside from Clark's statement, the morning session of the trial in which bribery is charged, passed quietly.

When court adjourned at noon there were six jurors passed, five others, including two women, passed for cause but still subject to pre-emptory challenge, and one whose examination was not completed.

The court was confident the jury would be completed this afternoon.

Capt. John D. Fredericks, chief counsel for Mayor Woodman, took personal charge of the questioning today. This was the signal for close attention to every word by District Attorney Woolwine. While the court-room momentarily expected a clash, nothing occurred to disturb the even progress of the case.

Considerable comment was caused by the presence of Deputy Sheriff Anderson, known as a crack shot, at the door of the court-room today as an added guard.

STRIKE SITUATION IS TENSE AFTER CLASH

BOSTON, April 18.—The situation in the telephone strike throughout New England was tense today following a series of clashes between crowds of strike sympathizers and strike breakers in which several students of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology were beaten.

With the strike in its fourth day there was no indication of a break in the ranks of the strikers, who still maintain that they will not negotiate through the channels which Postmaster General Burleson declared they must use before the wage increase situation will be considered.

Lenine Poses In China As Reincarnated Mongol Hero

Lenine as Genghis Khan.

Photograph Used to Spread Bolshevism Scattered Throughout Empire

PARIS, April 18.—Lenine and Trotsky stop at nothing to spread their Bolshevik propaganda and they adopt many unusual methods to carry on their work.

One of the latest fields they have invaded is China and Lenine has gone out of the beaten path to swerve the illiterate Chinese to his cause. One method he uses is to send photographs of himself dressed as Genghis Khan throughout China. Genghis Khan is a national hero in Mongol legend and history who once penetrated into Russia as far as the lands between the Volga and the Dnieper, conquering all as he went.

Lenine is attempting to convince the Chinese with his picture and by other means, that he is really Genghis Khan reincarnated. His picture is standing him in good stead because of his strong resemblance to the Mongols under the style of headress he wore when photographed.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—The estate of the late Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst is today estimated at from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000 following the filing of the will for probate. Value of vast realty holdings causes the variance in estimates.

Bequests of from $25,000 to $250,000 are made to the brother, cousins and nieces of Mrs. Hearst. The University of California receives $500,000 to maintain Mrs. Hearst's scholarship fund and her art collection and the five sons of William Randolph Hearst are bequeathed the Hearst building here and other realty. GERMAN SEAMAN HELD AS INSANITY SUSPECT

BOSTON, April 18.—Julius Fischer, a German seaman attached to the steamer Patricia, one of the North German Lloyd liners recently turned over to the United States by Germany, was under observation in the psychopathic ward of the naval hospital here today.

Fischer was placed in irons when a fire started in his stateroom when the ship was several hundred miles at sea.

While it is known that Fischer has a mental derangement, Captain Windsor of the ship believes the man had no malicious intent and the fire was started when Fischer tried to light a cigaret by making a contact between two electric wires.

BERLIN IS DECLARED IN STATE OF SIEGE AS RESULT OF STRIKE

COPENHAGEN, April 18.—Berlin has been declared in a state of siege as a result of the general strike there, dispatches from that city reported today.

Proclamations to that effect were dropped on the city from government airplanes, it was said. The proclamations were signed personally by President Ebert.

FIRST BOND IN VICTORY LOAN IS BOUGHT

Ladies Aid Society of First Presbyterian Church Pays $150 Cash

ORANGE COUNTY FOLK EAGER TO SUBSCRIBE

Many District Chairmen Say Quotas Will be Taken Up First Day

GEORGE W. FORD today started the ball to rolling in a liberty bond club by offering to take $5000 worth if nineteen other men in the city would match him. There is $100,000 in sight if the club is completed. Clubs were among the most productive sources in the last drive. Ford has his hat in the ring—are there nineteen men in Santa Ana who will shy their "sky-pieces" into the ring with his?

The first bond of the Victory Loan has been sold in Santa Ana. The Ladies' Aid of the First Presbyterian church has the honor of being the first purchaser. Following an address by Mrs. A. J. Lawton, city chairman of the Women's Liberty Loan Committee, the society bought a $150 bond, paying spot cash.

City Chairman John G. Mitchell and County Chairman R. L. Bisby have much evidence that the people of the city and county are going to put their shoulders to the wheel and subscribe the full quota in less time than previous issues have been taken up.

Yesterday at the school grounds during a game of baseball, Osborne Garber, a teacher, told Mitchell that he wanted a $500 bond, that he had bought in all the issues and that he was going the limit on the final one. He has been saving for the time that he could attach his signature to an application for the final bonds.

D. G. Davis is waiting to invest $800. Davis has that sum in a local bank that he is going to turn into the best security in the world—a U. S. government bond.

These are just indications of the way the wind is blowing in Santa Ana. All Eager to Buy

Throughout the county the situation is the same—everyone is eager to buy. Several district chairmen have called on County Chairman Bisby for their quotas and when informed gave assurance that the full amount will be taken by Tuesday night.

The county drive starts on Monday next and several districts will bound over the top before the first nightfall. J. C. Sexton of Brea asked for his quota. It is $16,000.

"We will have the money in hand before Monday night," was his comment.

J. H. Walker of La Habra is another district chairman who wanted information as to the amount that vicinity has been apportioned. Its allotment is $25,900. "That's easy—we will give it to you by Monday night," was the parting information he gave the chairman. Lew H. Wallace, the harbor booster, is in charge of the drive at Newport. "What's our quota, Bisby," quizzed Wallace over the phone.

"We are going to let you off with $12,400," said Bisby.

"Set us down for over the top for Tuesday night," came back promptly from the harbor booster.

Bisby and Mrs. N. M. Holderman last night were speakers at workers' meetings at Orange and Fullerton. At both places the workers were enthusiastic and declared that they would reach their quotas the first week. F. L. Ainsworth is city chairman at Orange and L. P. Drake at Fullerton.

All Workers Optimistic

"In none of the drives have I found the workers as optimistic as they are for the fifth loan," declared Bisby today. "They have been feeling the pulse of the people in their community and they have found the public ready to absorb the final issue. All recognize the responsibility of the individual in the debts contracted by the government to hasten the end of the war and they stand ready to meet those obligations."

Thursday morning of next week, the splendid organization of City Chairman John G. Mitchell will lead into action with the blast of the whistle at the water works. The city has been divided into four districts with a chairman for each, and responsibility for each district doing its full share has been passed down to sub-chairmen of smaller districts. The organization is thorough, with experienced canvassers assigned to work in each section.

FISH BEING BROUGHT INTO NEWPORT TODAY

For the first time in many days, commercial fishing boats came into Newport harbor today laden with treasure from the briny, largely barbacuda, with some yellowtail sprinkled in for good measure, a half-ton of fish being landed about noon. Good catches were brought in by the boats docking today, which put out to sea yesterday after receiving word that the fishermen's strike was at an end.

Deep-sea fishing as a sport is now good, all reports declare, and many parties of rod and reel sportsmen are making arrangements for boats out of Newport Bay within the next few days.

LOS ANGELES WINS IN HIGHWAY FIGHT

SACRAMENTO, April 18.—Los Angeles is winner today in the third round of battle for the Lancaster-Bakersfield road against Kern county's contention for the Kern river route from Bakersfield to the Lincoln highway in the Sierras.

The assembly highways commission last night recommended the amendment of the senate $40,000,000 highway program to eliminate the Kern county route in favor of the Los Angeles road.

The original program carried the Los Angeles road and the senate committee recommended it. On the floor it was eliminated in favor of the Kern route at $100,000 less cost. The assembly committee now asks the senate to drop the Kern route and return to the Los Angeles route. If this is accomplished the senate and assembly will have to come to some compromise.

The Los Angeles county road would complete a good highway loop around the ridge route. The Kern road provides an outlet from Inyo county to the San Joaquin valley.

Threat To Withdraw Distillate Caused Change In Position

Threat of the producers to withdraw distillate from the market was the cause of the Automobile Trades Association of California at its meeting in Modesto withdrawing its endorsement of proposed legislation making it incumbent upon producers to discolor distillate so that it could be detected when mixed with gasoline.

The reason for the action at Modesto was explained by Secretary Bob Martland at the forenoon session of the state convention being held here today. This afternoon important matters came up for consideration among them the offer of the state association to dispose of 10,000 of the 5¢ certificates proposed to be issued to create a fund for building a permanent road from Modesto to the Yosemite.

The forenoon was taken up almost entirely by a discussion on the plan for discoloring distillate. Every dealer and garage man is heartily in favor of such a plan, but the threat of the wholesaling companies to withdraw the product has caused a change in the attitude of the association members. Its withdrawal would be a serious handicap to tractor work and various forms of motor vehicle traffic.

The companies claim that it would cost them $20,000,000 to adapt their equipment to conform to the proposed legislation. Once discolored distillate is used in a tank wagon or any kind of a container, that tank or container is serviceable only for that product. The proposed ingredient for discoloring is so powerful that it leaves its track in any equipment it is used in.

The attendance at the forenoon session was about fifty, with that many or more arriving for the afternoon session and evening entertainment. Delegates are here from as far north as San Francisco and Sacramento. Among the men prominent in the association who are in attendance are the following:

State President R. W. Sinclair of San Diego, State Secretary Bob Martland of Oakland, State Vice President R. O. Baldwin of Long Beach, State Vice President J. W. Maltman of Los Angeles, J. W. Levins, president of the San Diego county organization; J. O. Rankin, president of the Long Beach association; C. O. Olive, secretary of the San Diego association; A. V. Storer, secretary of the Pomona Valley association; M. H. Horn of Sacramento and Walter B. Paverty of San Francisco; C. R. Allen of Fullerton, secretary, and O. A. Maltby of Santa Ana, president of the Orange County association; Wayne Corbitt, corporation salesman for Los Angeles; The Company of San Diego.

Tonight at 7 o'clock the delegates and visitors will banquet at Odd Fellows' hall, with Secretary Bob Martland scheduled for a brief after-dinner talk.

From 8:00 to 10:00 dancing and moving picture parties will be the order. At 10:30 the crowd will depart for a beach point, the place and the character of entertainment being a profound secret, the entertainment committee, however, promising something good.

TEMPEST and SUNSHINE

a beautiful play of the South with the picturesque costumes of 1860. This drama takes its name from the two leading characters—two sisters—whose natures are as opposite as light and darkness. "Sunshine," played by Miss Betty Oliver, is like a ray of light, full of laughter and joy, bringing happiness wherever she goes. "Tempest," the role played by Miss Augusta Reed, is the very opposite—self-willed and fiery.

A story that will never grow old. Read and enjoyed by our mothers and fathers, when they were young, it still possesses delight and charm for us, and will be as much appreciated by our children.

A sweet, wholesome play, breathing the fragrant breath of a bygone day, yet one where men and women loved, and laughed, and wept, much as they do today, and as they will do, to the end of time.

Easter Shop Windows

The stores downtown have their final Easter displays in the windows now, and there is a variety of beautiful things sufficient to please the most fastidious. Whatever you need to make Easter a complete success is to be found. There is one great advantage in shopping just before Easter—you are certain to get the very newest. Many of the handsomest novelties of the year will be displayed tomorrow.

Tomorrow is the day to see the new summer skirts at Gilbert's, in tricot, crepe de chine, serge and Bedford cords. They give lasting satisfaction with their fashionable lines and beautiful material. You can see them on Gilbert's second floor.

Another lovely new color is "cloud blue."

For Easter at the Mode Millinery there is an unusually beautiful and complete line of trimmed hats. So many beauties that you will surely find just what you want. Transparent hats, Milans and dainty hand-made hats. And they're made and designed at the Mode Millinery, with its reputation for correctness and exclusive style.

The accessories certainly make the costume!

The Smart Shop windows have the real just-before-Easter appearance, with a lovely display of new apparel which is attracting crowds of shoppers. Especially a white khaki-kool sport dress, trimmed with blue. And a plaid sport skirt, which has a nifty tuck around the bottom. And don't forget to see that henna colored Dolman. Many other things of special interest, new, correct, and with that Smart Shop individuality.

Many new gowns are enhanced with pendant ornaments of chenille and silk twist.

There's still time enough to get one of those charming veils for Easter which make such a pretty display in Gilbert's window. Drape veils and circular veils, with chenille dots and figures.

Some of the new capes have Medici collars.

The most fashionable handbags are the Pershing canteen bags which Mrs. Cavins is showing. Each is lined with lovely silk. The price is much cheaper than anywhere in Los Angeles.

Net combined with lace makes very clever blouses.

You can give your pumps the real Easter touch with a pair of the new fashionable silver and copper buckles which the Turner Shoe Store has just received. They transform your pumps to the Colonial style at once, and are made of the most exquisite hammered and oxidized copper or silver.

Black suede gloves for evening are smart, indeed.

On your next trip down town look in the windows of the Summer Shop, 117 W. 4th, at an Easter display of dainty accessories which will delight you. Filmy hand embroidered collars in attractive boxes, corsage bouquets and party bags. Bead chains in original and unusual color combinations, hand cut beads in old fashioned jet and jewel effects. These attractive things are Miss Summer's own designs. Be sure to see her Easter cards; they are most artistic and there is a splendid variety.

Tailored or "frilly" collars are worn with spring suits.

For your Easter dessert, cake frosting or filling, Hippo-lite Marshmallow Creme at Wolford's Grocery is ideal.

MAN HAS MIRACULOUS ESCAPE

"I was told by our family physician that I could not live without an operation, as my liver and gall sack were in such a condition. I set the day to go to the hospital, but then I saw the advertisement of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. Since taking it I am feeling like a two-year-old. I am sure never could have survived an operation." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With Othine—Double Strength

This preparation for the removal of freckles is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of Othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine, it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

You don't have to cook it, and it makes the most delicious dessert you ever tasted. See it on the front show counter at Wolford's, and make the Easter dessert a certain success.

Ostrich fringe is very smart for trimmings gowns.

We have noticed one shoe store in Santa Ana that is featuring white footwear for Easter, in canvas, kid and calfskin, at prices that are very reasonable. Some of them are displayed in the windows of the Kafateria Shoe Store.

A navy blue taffeta cape is extremely swagger.

Camisoles, dainty and fetching to a degree, are in Spicer's window this week-end. They are in wash satin and crepe de chine. Better get one while these pretty Easter things are on sale, for later on the variety will not be so large.

Fillet crochet sweaters are the very newest.

Leipsic's windows are extraordinary this week with an unusual artistic display that everyone should see. Some beautiful things are being shown, including some lovely silk underwear, silk dresses, capes, Georgette and crepe de chine waists, kid gloves, new beads, hand purses, white Georgette and crepe de chine skirts, all exclusive designs.

DESPERATE FIGHTING FOR MUNICH CONTROL

BERLIN, April 17.—Desperate fighting continues for possession of Munich, according to despatches received here.

Several regiments of government troops were reported to have met the socialist forces outside the city which are making preparations for a grand assault. The communist defenders, while maintaining their artillery fire, are erecting barricades and barbed wire entanglements in the principal streets entering the town. Plundering is said to have got beyond control of the communist guards.

HER IMPROVEMENT AMAZES FRIENDS

Looking After Sixty-Two-Room House No Task to Mrs. La Plant Now

"All my friends know and can tell you that for a long time I was almost a nervous wreck, and this Tanlac has made such a wonderful change in my condition that they are simply amazed at my improvement," said Mrs. Ella La Plant, who conducts a large rooming house at 412 Puyallup avenue, Tacoma, Washington, the other day. "For the last twelve years," she continued, "I had been in a terribly rundown condition and during that whole time, hardly a day passed that I didn't suffer from awful headaches. I had no appetite at all and what little I forced down would ferment in my stomach and distress me for hours. My kidneys were out of order and worried me night and day and my nerves were so unstrung that, after going to bed, any little sound, even the rustling of a newspaper, would wake me with a start and it would be some time before I could drop off to sleep again. I had a very large house to look after, and I was so weak and miserable that a couple of hours' work would exhaust me so that I'd just have to quit for the rest of the day. The fact is, loss of sleep and lack of nourishment had undermined my nervous system and I was just wearing myself out."

"I spent all the money I had on medicines and treatments that did me no good, and I had about given up hope of ever getting well, when I began to read about the good Tanlac was doing others and I thought I might as well try it. Well, sir, the way I began to pick up right after starting on it, surprised even me, for after experience with other medicines I did not expect such quick results. My appetite is just fine—too fine, the way prices are now—for I feel hungry most all the time. My kidneys don't worry me at all now, and I am rid of that terrible headache at last. Those awful headaches are all gone, too, which is a grand relief, besides, I sleep all night like a child and feel so strong and rested when I get up in the mornings, that I don't mind at all the work I have to do in looking after a sixty-two-room house full of people. My father is now taking Tanlac and says he is just feeling fine."

Tanlac is sold in Santa Ana by Rowley Drug Co., in Fullerton by G. W. Finch, in La Habra by R. H. Hilbert, in Huntington Beach by Riedon's Pharmacy, in Orange by Dittmer's Mission Pharmacy, in Placentia by A. J. WELCOME HOME, CO. L.

Today we are giving the heartiest of hand-shakes to the men of Co. L who are returning to us from overseas. They are a straight, manly lot of men—no longer boys. They have come back to us clear of eye and full of ambition to "get into the game" at home. They have seen foreign shores, and have experienced many things that the citizen who remained at home has never experienced. They have come back to us with a deep appreciation of Santa Ana and Orange county somewhat in proportion to the much more poignant appreciation that we have of them for their sacrifices, for what they did for us, and for what they held themselves ready to do—die, if need be.

Santa Ana has always been proud of Co. L. It was proud of the company before the Mexican border trouble. It was a fine lot of young men who went to Arizona many months ago now, and they came back much better soldiers than they went away.

We remember with what enthusiasm these men departed when they were called to arms soon after America entered definitely into the war overseas. Those boys went away in gladness of heart, anxious for action, more than anxious to do their part whatever they were called upon to do. The long weeks of guard duty at San Luis Obispo and the long months of waiting at Camp Kearny tried their patience, but the time came when a part of the men of Co. L were started for France.

Only a few of those boys have returned. They were men who were wounded in battle. Some of them, Stamey Elliott, for one, will never come back. That contingent was scattered through regular army organizations, and went through the hardest fighting of the summer and fall. Many of them are with the army of occupation, and will not be home for months. Then, we remember the excitement when the remainder of the company departed, under command of Captain Holderman. They were sent away with a smile. The long period of waiting to go was over, and the farewells were tense.

Among them were Sergt. Nat Rochester, Private Ernest Kellogg and Private Hugh Veale. Those men have not returned. The bodies of Nat Rochester, who was killed in the wonderful stand of the Lost Battalion, and Hugh Beale, killed in the rescue of the Lost Battalion, lie in heroes' graves over here. The fate of Ernest Kellogg has not been determined.

Our hearts are torn with grief and our throats choke when we count the losses that came to our gallant home company. "The fortunes of war!" say ye, in our grief, in trying to keep back the tears of sorrow.

We regret that Co. L could not return as a unit, as it went away that unshiny day, when the boys boarded the cars at Fourth and Broadway. We regret that Capt. Holderman, whose uperb behavior and leadership, though wounded, in the Lost Battalion, won for him the distinguished service cross, could not return with the men he trained. For him we remain a welcome that will be extended a demonstration upon his arrival, some weeks or months hence.

But we will not let regrets depress us now. Our faces are toward the rising sun, and our hands are out, as our hearts are, too, to those soldiers who today brighten our streets with their presence. We welcome you all, from Lieut. Charles D. Swanner, who suffered wounds in battle, to the last of you to volunteer with Co. L. We are glad to see you, glad to see you young and well, and we welcome you as you were never welcomed before.

VERY BAD SERVICE

Not because, Postmaster-General Hurleson is a Democrat, but because it is an almost unbearably aggravating fact, the Register is impelled to declare that the railway part of the second-class or newspaper postal service is a complete failure. The Register receives an average of three or four complaints a day from subscribers who get their papers by mail, and from what we know of human nature in general, and of the habits of newspaper subscribers in particular, only one complaint is made out of ten that could be justly filed.

There is no trouble with the rural routes of the county, nor with the delivery of the local office. But when a paper get in the hands of the city mail clerks and it's a gamble as to whether it ever reaches its destination or not.

We absolutely know that the papers leave the Register office and the Santa Ana postoffice all right, for the circulation manager of the Register and the forwarding clerk of the postoffice have jointly checked them out time and time again. But they do not reach the subscriber with even reasonable regularity or promptness. They are three to five days late, or arrive two, three or four in a bunch, or, more often, do not arrive at all.

Of course, the principal object of this editorial is to assure our subscribers that the Register and the Santa Ana postoffice are doing all they can to get the papers delivered.

WAR BONDS AND GOOD TIMES

"If the Fifth Liberty Loan is sold to all the people, we will have good times. If workers or buyers hold back and force this loan upon the banks, we will have dull times."

This statement, made by the head of one of the big Victory Loan committees, hits the nail on the head.

The reasoning is simple enough. The bonds will have to be taken by somebody—the government has already spent nearly all the money, and must have it to maintain the credit and honor of the nation and to pay further war bills. If the people don't take the bonds, the banks will have to take them. The banks can do it if necessary; but that would tie up so much of their funds that they would have little money left to advance to business men for purposes of general industry and trade. Such a tightening of bank credit would mean hard times.

Nobody wants business to grow dull. The way to hasten good times is for everybody—rich and poor and in between—to buy bonds as we bought them when the war was at its height.

It does seem odd that an Irish leader, particularly a Sinn Feiner, should be named De Valera.

New Jersey has passed a eugenics law requiring a certificate of physical health for marriage. Well, we can talk about that again if the peace conference plays out.

One very good reason why there is no great "army of unemployed" present or prospective in this country is that the immigrant labor supply has been checked for several years.

LEARNED THRIFT

By George Pattullo

In Saturday Evening Post—It cannot be said that our doughboys especially admire the French, much as they respect some of their achievements; but one French characteristic has made a deep impression—thrift. It ought really to be spelled in capitals to convey even a faint notion of the way the French practice it.

Other peoples are reputed to be frugal. The Scotch have obtained some notoriety in this respect—you may remember Mark Twain's statement that there were a few Jews in Glasgow and one in Aberdeen, but they remained there solely because they couldn't earn enough money to leave. But when it is said and done, the French are in a class by themselves when it comes to husbanding the francs and half francs and centimes. They make a New England village money lender look like a reckless spendthrift.

At first this all pervading characteristic of our allies roused sharp resentment and contempt among the soldiers. But after a while they learned to respect it—they had to in self defense. And on the heels of respect came speculation as to whether frugality might not be a virtue.

The effect is becoming visible in their finance; they no longer accept change blindly; and have taken to inquiring the price. It is difficult to make over a spendthrift, but a careless man can acquire caution, and when the army returns home it will carry back new standards of thrift. For the doughboy has heard money talk in three languages.

WHAT TO U. S.?

Columbus Dispatch

France has presented Vimy Ridge to Canada. The great battle ground will be turned into a memorial for those who fought and died and those who fought and lived—a hallowed shrine to be preserved forever by the government of men who struggled as only freemen can, against the hordes who sought to enslave the world.

The crest of the ridge above Couches can never again be reclaimed for agricultural purposes. Pitted with shells, great craters made by mines, scarred in every way, it cannot again be made to produce food for people. So the Canadian government proposes to turn it into a sort of park, to plant upon it maples from Canada—for the maple leaf was the badge of the Canadians. No expense will be spared in beautifying the surroundings, but the scars will be preserved—the great holes will be left in the earth—while the splendid trees will shelter the earth with their shade in the years to come.

There are several places in France and Flanders which should belong to the United States, for the same purpose for which the Canadians have been given Vimy Ridge. France would probably be glad to give them, for the asking. But, if she is not willing to give them, let us buy parts of the great battle fields where our sons fought the same fight the Canadians fought. Let us make of the Argonne, for instance, an American Park—a shrine hallowed by the blood and suffering of American soldiers.

Brief communications will be published under this head, provided they be signed by the author. However, the Editor shall be the sole judge as to the propriety of publishing any communications, and the Register assumes no responsibility for any views that may be expressed in this column.

MR. JACKMAN AGAINST NEWPORT HARBOR BONDS

Editor Register: As an opponent of the proposed harbor bonds, allow me to express my appreciation of your generous offer, made April first, to give those who oppose the bonds as much space in your paper to present their facts, arguments and opinions as will be given those who favor them. Also allow me to say in this connection that, in my opinion, your statement that "the harbor bonds proposition, is strictly business; if it is good business the bonds ought to carry; if it is bad business they ought to be defeated," hits the nail squarely on the head. And it is our hope that all who avail themselves of your offer, the writer included, will try and keep that point in view.

The question of building a harbor at Newport Bay has been under discussion for nearly half a century; and as a commercial proposition, it is no nearer solution than in the beginning. We know that is a bold assertion to make, but we make it without fear of successful contradiction. In fact, we challenge the proponents to produce any positive evidence, emanating from an authoritative official source, that the United States has ever given any promise to assist, financially, in building that harbor, whether the $500,000 in bonds be voted or not.

If they cannot show this, after all these years of their striving for federal aid, then our contentions are proven, as without federal assistance a commercial harbor CANNOT be built. This being true, then the kind of a harbor that will be built—if the bonds are voted—will positively be of no financial benefit, in the way of reducing freight rates, etc., to the rank and file of the people of Orange county, who will have the bulk of the cost of the work to pay, not alone for construction, but for maintaining it after it is constructed; and that will be no slight amount, as the taxpayers are bound to learn if they are foolish enough to try the experiment by voting the bonds.

Before closing this article we wish to give one illustration of the kind of argument being advanced by the proponents of the harbor, to show that our contentions are grounded on fact, that something besides a commercial harbor is being considered by them. As this quotation is from a strong contender for the bonds, it may be taken as authoritative. It reads: "If Newport Bay should be developed only to the full extent of its possibilities as a harbor for sporting and pleasure craft, we believe such development would repay Orange county many times $500,000 within the next ten or twenty years."

Taxpayers, put that in your pipe and smoke it while you ponder on the advisability of voting a half million dollars in bonds to make it possible for the Harbor Commission to carry into effect their ideas of a harbor.

S. J. JACKMAN.

EDITOR'S NOTE—The above quotation in which Mr. Jackman seems to think he has discovered a mare's nest is from an editorial in the Register. The inference Mr. Jackman would have you draw is that this statement shows that the proponents of the harbor bonds do not expect or hope or intend to develop the harbor on a commercial scale. Of course the statement does not mean anything of the kind. It was not made at the suggestion or with the knowledge or consent of anybody officially connected with the harbor bonds proposition, nor is it the expression of any hint or suggestion or opinion of any proponent of the bonds proposition. It is merely and only and solely the statement of the editor of the Register—the expression of his own opinion, that at the very lowest estimate of the benefits to be derived, the harbor bonds would be a paying investment.—Editor Register.

OBSERVATIONS

A good citizen is one who hopes for the best, prepares for the worst, and grins regardless of the event.

Our statesmen have a marvelous faculty for recognizing the need of a lock on the stable door after the horse has been stolen.

The sucker looks for big dividends and thinks nothing of security, and thus communism becomes the most attractive bait ever offered the foolish.

Fraternal Aid Convention.

The semi-annual convention of the Fraternal Aid Union was held in Walker auditorium, Los Angeles Wednesday. Santa Ana Lodge sent a strong delegation which left here early in the morning and remained over until the close of the evening session. The convention was one of the most enjoyable in the history of this staunch order. F. C. Drumm of Orange has been president for the past year. The morning session was given to preliminary business matters and reports. A banquet was given the two hundred delegates by the entertaining Lodge, L. A. No. 874, at Temple Auditorium, a circle of the Temple Baptist church serving the repast in a faultless manner. The ritual contest was a feature of the afternoon session, and again Santa Ana Lodge No. 365 was the winning team and brought home the prize money. The initiatory ceremony was exemplified by four degree teams and Santa Ana's score was very high. W. G. Gould of this city was elected president for the coming year. Santa Ana was selected as the place for holding the next convention in October. At the regular meeting tonight there will be reports and matters of importance to every member in Santa Ana will be discussed. A surprise program, which has been in preparation for some time, will also be presented.

Farewell For Mrs. Mullinix.

One of the happiest events of the week in Fraternal Circles was the surprise party given on Wednesday evening by Torosa Rebekah lodge at the home of Mrs. Alex Brownbridge, on North Main street, with Mrs. Brownbridge's mother, Mrs. Susan Mullinix as the very much surprised guest of honor. Mrs. Mullinix leaves soon with her daughter, Mrs. Jesse Dawson, and small grandson, Horace Dawson, for Canada, where she will make an extended visit, and Torosa's members chose this method of wishing her a happy journey and a safe return, and to express their deep appreciation of her faithful work in the lodge.

Mrs. B. Uttley, in behalf of the members present, presented Mrs. Mullinix with a handsome embossed leather portfolio.

In the afternoon a company of Veteran Rebekahs had gathered at the Brownbridge home to bid Mrs. Mullinix goodbye. Refreshments of chocolate and wafers were served by the committee in charge, Meses A. C. Bowers, Belle Buck, and B. Uttley.

Lincoln Parent-Teachers

The Parent-Teachers Association held their monthly meeting yesterday afternoon. There was a very satisfactory attendance and a program of much interest rewarded the mothers and teachers who were present.

Mrs. Wm. H. Spurgeon, Jr., had charge of the program, and after an interesting and helpful review of a book on Child Development, conducted a question box, when problems of interest to all mothers were discussed.

Mrs. H. M. Sammis gave two beautiful solos, and Miss Adeline Hill read a charming little story. A brief presentation of some of the reasons why everybody should subscribe to the Victory Loan was made by Mrs. Terry Stephenson.

A membership drive has been an absorbing interest of the children at Lincoln during the past month, a "treat" having been promised the class that made the best showing. The Fifth B class easily carried away the honors, as their role of P. T. A. members is 200 per cent. perfect. The treat will be given at the school grounds on Monday afternoon, after school.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain.
How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Eucrated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Eucrated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never in liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

NEWPORT BEACH TO PURCHASE AUTO TRUCK

No Surety Will be Asked in Balboa Ferry Line Contract

NEWPORT BEACH, April 18.—At the meeting of the board of trustees Monday evening, the matter of purchasing a truck for the street department was discussed and it was finally decided to purchase a one and one-half ton Ford truck, which it was thought be the most practical for the city's needs. The price as reported by Trustee J. C. McCain would be about $900. The street committee was given power to act in the matter and the truck will be purchased.

Trustee McCain also reported that fire truck No. 1 had been partially dismantled by Rodger Brothers, and the crank case, which was cracked, had been sent to Los Angeles to be welded.

The request of the Jackson, Norton Company to transfer its garage and machine shop license to C. G. and E. D. Rodger, was granted.

The deal offered by Joseph Ferguson to trade a lot on 20th street for filling some of his property along the Bay Front, was rejected by the board and the original agreement of the city accepting a lot and a half on 30th street for the work of filling other lots was favored. Ferguson asked that the Bay Front lot be taken by the city instead of the 30th street lot and a half, but the city engineer was instructed to carry through the first contract with him.

The matter of an ordinance for the betterment of health conditions in Newport Beach was again brought up by Trustee L. S. Wilkinson and the city attorney asked to get the data in shape for action by the board. The ordinance was suggested by Health Officer J. A. Porter and if adopted by the trustees, will give the board of health of the city more authority over the control of contagious and infectious diseases.

The city clerk reported that a communication had been received from S. S. Wade, of the Southern Counties Gas Company, concerning the installation of a four-inch gas main from Huntington Beach to Newport Beach, and he stated that the improvement would undoubtedly be made by the company. Anticipating trouble with the Southern Pacific over the right of way for the gas mains, Mr. Wade stated that he wanted a letter from the board of trustees stating that the larger mains were a necessity to the city.

City Clerk J. R. Lemon reported that the $65,000 dredging bonds had been received and delivered to the purchaser, F. W. Guthridge, interest and par being collected on the same.

Considerable of a quandary was presented to the board by Harry Wilson, of the Wilson Brothers Company, who has the contract to operate the Balboa Island ferry line. It was stipulated in the contract that the company must give a bond for $1000 for the faithful performance of the agreement, but Mr. Wilson stated that none of the surety companies would accept applications for bonds on marine ventures of this nature.

It was felt by the board that the mutual interest of the Wilson Brothers Company in the ferry line, together with other stipulations in the contract, would be ample protection for the city, so the bond matter was eliminated from the agreement.

Knight Buys New Auto

Frank J. Knight, the genial street superintendent, is now the proud and happy possessor of one of those famous "Overland Sixes" that you hear City Engineer Paul Kressley rave so much about. The auto bug has been under the skin of the "Street Baron" for some time and it finally broke through the surface. The new owner has been "stepping on her" every day since delivery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCain entertained the "500" club at their cosy cottage in East Newport last Thursday evening. There were twelve guests present who enjoyed the evening's card playing, Mrs. R. M. Durke capturing the ladies' prize and Harry Jumper affixing to his collection of loot the game's first prize. After the card games, the hostess served Welch rarebit, lemon pie and coffee. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jumper, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jumper, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Jumper, Mrs. Etta Henry, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCain and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Durke.

Mrs. Jefferson Culver, of Los Angeles, was the guest for a few days this week of Mr. and Mrs. George Huntington, of Newport Heights. Miss Mary Hemstreet, who is attending school at Anaheim, is enjoying the Easter vacation in Newport Beach visiting with her father, C. S. Hemstreet and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barton, who have been spending a week visiting in Los Angeles with relatives and friends, returned home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew H. Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wedgewood attended the meeting of Orange County Bankers' Association held at the Elks' hall in Santa Ana last Saturday evening.

The three Chamber of Commerce signs located at Balboa, East Newport and Newport, have been repainted and re-lettered, advertising the Orange county harbor bond election to be held on June 10. The work was done by William Elkins, of Balboa, and is an exceptionally fine job. The sign across the bridge is being made and will be ready to put in place on Saturday.

Torpedo Lost in San Pedro Bay
City Marshal Porter has received a communication from San Pedro stating that a torpedo had been lost in practice by the U. S. S. Alert, and it is thought that it might possibly be washed ashore somewhere along the Orange county coast. The torpedo

DID YOU SEE THAT WONDERFUL CROWD?

—Oh! my but what a glorious good natured crowd. Long before the doors opened the crowds of men, women and children gathered on the side walk and clear into the streets, packed three deep, and the minute the big doors swung back people rushed into the building and from one end of the store to the other began buying as never in all the history of this store. Up and down one side, cross the way could be heard: "Hello, John"—"Good morning Mr. Casey"—"did you ever see good things so cheap"—"Come this way—step lively"—"I'll take that"—"give me three of these"—"Geel I'm glad I came." Such remarks were heard all over the store. It was necessary to close the doors tight eight times—it was impossible to wait on all—it is a revelation to the oldest inhabitants of Santa Ana or for many miles around. After all is said we could tell you more—they came, they saw, they bought—and because there was a good reason.

John H. Sharps Struck by Auto

Jonathan H. Sharps, owner of the Sharps block on 22nd street and Bay avenue, was hit by an auto last Saturday afternoon and although thrown several feet, he escaped serious injury, due in all probability to the fact that the car was traveling at low speed. Mr. Sharps was on his way after his cow and had been given a lift as far as the glass plant by Miss Alice Plummer. Alighting on the right-hand side of the car, he went around the rear and started across the street just as Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ham and daughter, of San Bernardino, came along in their car. There was no time to give a warning before the big machine struck Mr. Sharps, who was hurled several feet. The injured man was brought to his home where it was ascertained that he had received a severe bruise on the forehead and other minor injuries to his shoulder and legs.

GROVE IS SURE DINNER HONORS LOAN WILL BE TOM GISLER'S SUCCESSFUL RETURN HOME

Geo. R. Reyburn Heads Last Government Bond Drive, Starting Monday

Talbert Man Spent Six Months in France, Mostly Hospitals from Wounds

GARDEN GROVE, April 18.—The Victory loan drive begins next Monday, April 21. That the government is on a better financial basis than was thought at first canvass is shown by the fact that it was announced the loan would be for six billions at 4 1/2 per cent for five years and has been reduced one and one-half billions for four years, bearing 4 per cent. Although the war is over, our boys are not yet all home and placed "in statu quo," there will be no difficulty in going over the top in this LAST loan and all directors and workers are very optimistic. G. R. Reyburn's efficiency in the past loan drives has bound him so close to the management that it was impossible for him to withdraw, and he is chairman of the Victory loan drive. He issues the following letter to his co-workers.

Dear Sirs: Again comes the call of duty from your government to aid in raising the Victory Loan, which is a debt of honor we all owe. It is true that the battle is fought and the victory won, but it cost billions of dollars in money and many precious lives to win the victory. Money can never repay for the lives that were lost, but money will enable the government to bring our soldier and sailor boys home and help to pay in part the enormous debt incurred in winning the war.

Therefore, your country calls to you to aid in this great and patriotic work.

The executive committee of the Garden Grove Victory Loan has decided to start the drive on the 21st day of April, being the first day of the campaign. You will please meet at the bank corner in Garden Grove on Monday morning, April 21, at 8:30 o'clock to receive supplies and instructions.

And now with the utmost confidence in your ability to put this loan over the top, I am

Respectfully your co-worker,
GEORGE R. REYBURN,
Chairman Garden Grove Victory Loan Committee.

TALBERT, April 18.—Tom Gisler came in from San Francisco Sunday, arriving in Santa Ana at 11:30 a. m., where he was met by the family and all motored on to San Juan Capistrano from the depot, where they spent the remainder of the day at the hill climb. Upon their return home in the evening a family dinner at which all the members of the family were present was given as a welcome to the returned soldier, eleven months having elapsed since the family last sat down to a meal together. The evening proved a most happy one, the events that have transpired here and which Tom had encountered in camp life and warfare furnishing an endless topic of interesting conversation.

Gisler spent over six months in France as a member of Co. E, 364th Infantry, the majority of which time he spent in different hospitals as the result of a shrapnel wound in the left arm which is not completely healed yet.

He came here from the Letterman Hospital at San Francisco and at the end of his thirty-day furlough will return for further treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Harper and Frank Harper were in attendance at the hill climb.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Weddle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Weddle and family and Sam Talbert were among those from here who attended the hill climb at Capistrano.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Borchard attended the bankers' banquet in Santa Ana Tuesday evening.

Miss Dorothy Hendry of Santa Ana, a school friend of Miss Edith Plavan, was a guest at the Plavan home from Wednesday until Sunday evening.

Clyde and Paul Plavan of Lakeview spent Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Plavan.

Recovers From Injury.

Mrs. U. H. Plavan, who had one of her limbs fractured while at the ranch near Talbert some weeks ago when her foot slipped through a hole in the barn floor, is now able to be about some and is gradually regaining the use of the limb. She and Mr. Plavan are at present taking an outing in Ventura county, where they are enjoying the fishing during her convalescence.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Walker and daughters, Elmore and Bernice, were in Los Angeles for the day Sunday, making the trip to visit Mrs. Walker's mother, Mrs. C. C. Hecock, at the Angelus Hospital. Mrs. Hecock was found to be doing fairly well. They also made a short visit at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Alvah Andrews. Upon their return the Walkers came by way of Dominguez and were accompanied home by Mrs. Walker's nephew, Hector Hecock, who is spending the week with them.

Mrs. Harry Harper Returns. Mrs. Harry Harper is at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Harper, having arrived last Saturday morning from Puyallup, Wash., where she has been since early last summer. She went north soon after Harry Harper entered training at Camp Lewis, where she made her home with her grandmother, who resides only a short distance from the cantonment. Mrs. Harper expected to wait there until the return of her husband from France with the 91st Division, thinking he would be discharged at Camp Lewis, so the first word of the plans to send them to Camp Kearny instead sent her flying southward to be here upon his arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox and daughters, Ollie and Dorothy, spent Monday at the home of the former's father, J. H. Cox, this being spring vacation in the Los Angeles schools. Mr. Cox returned home with them for a short visit, returning home Tuesday evening.

Robt. Wardlow and children drove to San Juan Capistrano Sunday to the hill climb.

A. F. Swift is irrigating his fifty-five-acre field of alfalfa this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones motored to Trabuca Sunday and spent the day at the home of Mr. Jones' uncle, Mr. Atkinson.

Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Woodson spent Monday in Long Beach with Los Angeles friends, Mr. and Mrs. Yarbrough and family, who leave Thursday for Providence, Ky., the former home of both families.

Balboa House Party. Miss Wilma Plavan spent a part of her past week's vacation pleasantly on a jolly house party at Balboa Beach. Six girls constituted the party and numerous were the lively frolics and jested during the three days' outing. The party went down on Wednesday, returning Saturday evening, occupying the Young cottage while there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pettitt visited Sunday at Whittier at the home of Mr. Pettitt's half-brother, Albert Roe.

Alva Weddle and family, cousins of Sam Talbert, moved Tuesday into one of the Talbert houses which has been freshly repainted and papered. The family have been at the home of his brother, Wilbur Weddle, since their arrival from the East a few weeks ago.

Centenary Address. Rev. B. E. Glasener of Santa Ana was in charge of the Sunday evening service at the local Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and gave an address on the Centenary movement. A good crowd was in attendance.

Rev. Glasener also spoke for Rev. Woodson at his Bolca charge in the afternoon, and Rev. C. E. Martin of Santa Ana spoke on the same subject at his Old Newport charge in the morning.

All the children of the community are invited to attend Sunday school Easter Sunday morning at the Talbert M. E. Church, South, and to later participate in the Easter egg hunt which is being arranged for the younger classes.

"DANDERINE" FOR FALLING HAIR

Stop dandruff and double beauty of your hair for few cents.

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of "Danderine" at any drug store for a few cents, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After several applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff. Your hair appears soft, glossy and twice as thick and abundant. Try it!—Adv.

Failed To Shoot For Fear of Killing Man Who Stole Her Chicks

Fear that she might kill a man whom she saw running away with some of her young chicks today prompted Mrs. C. D. Brown of Tustin to hold a gun in her hands, although she could easily have sent a bullet after him. Mrs. Brown was awakened about 5 o'clock by the furious barking of her dog and going outside she saw the man running through an orchard. Nine young chicks were missing.

Undersheriff J. H. Iman, who investigated the case today, tracked the man across a plowed field and into a wood patch, where the trail was lost. The tracks of a bare-footed boy were found alongside those of the man.

C. D. Brown, who is commander of the Knight Templar order here, is absent in San Francisco attending a meeting of the lodge, and the sneak thieves are running true to form, for it seems that every year when Brown is away his place is made the object of thieving depredations.

READING OF METER IS PASSED UP TO COURT

Whether or not the Southern California Edison Company's employees made mistakes in reading the meters on pumping plants owned by the Bastanchury Ranch Co. is to be determined by the Superior Court. The question is raised in a complaint filed today by the Edison company in which judgment of $1571.50 is asked against the ranch company. The disputed bill covers a period from April, 1917, to August, 1918.

Today Anniversary of the Crucifixion, Tragedy of the Ages

Today was observed in Santa Ana churches as Good Friday, the day of the great Crucifixion. While there may be no exact and authentic proof that this is the anniversary of the tragedy of the ages, history and tradition sanction it as such and there are good reasons to believe that the historical conclusion is founded on fairly accurate knowledge.

With the exception of the Resurrection, the Crucifixion was the most significant, while still the saddest, event in the world's history. Good Friday was and is a good day for the world, in spite of all the superstitions that are connected with the day.

Holy Week has been observed by many of the local churches, notably the Roman Catholic, Episcopal and Presbyterian. Continuous services have been held today at St. Joseph's Catholic Church and from noon until three o'clock at the church of the Messiah. At the First Presbyterian church tonight Rev. B. B. Weatherell, a Canadian clergyman, will preach.

At St. Peter's Lutheran, morning service was held.

RESIDENT OF ORANGE SHOOTS AT BURGLAR

ORANGE, April 18.—If some burglar who was prowling about this vicinity last night isn't suffering today from a bullet wound it is because bullets fired at him last night by R. A. Adams went wide of their mark.

Adams was aroused by a noise at his garage and got to the door of his residence in time to see a man trying to break into the garage. Adams opened fire on the intruder, who took to his heels and quickly disappeared. He was some sprinter, according to Adams.

When he first heard the noise, Mr. Adams phoned to City Marshal Crawshaw, but before the officer got there Adams decided he would take a shot at the man and did so. The night prowler could not be found when the officer arrived. The thief did not gain entrance to the garage.

Adams lives on North Batavia.

Walnut Grove Deal Involves $50,000, $60,000 Investment

A deal involving between $50,000 and $60,000 was closed today with the purchase by Ed Farnsworth, of the Orange County Savings and Trust Bank, of the 60-acre walnut grove of the Monaghan estate on the San Joaquin ranch.

This is one of the first walnut groves to be developed on the big ranch, the trees being between fourteen and fifteen years old. It closes out the interest there of a family that was prominently identified with this city and section for many years.

A new well was developed on the property last year. Mr. Farnsworth has no plans for immediate change in the property, but may eventually take out the walnut trees and plant Valencia oranges. An effort to increase the production of the grove will first be made and if this fails in all probability Farnsworth will substitute oranges.

FIRST SKIRMISH ENDS WITH WIDOW THE LOSER

In the first legal battle over the estate of William Schulte, the widow, Mrs. Emma Schulte, was the loser. She brought an action against the executors of the estate for the possession of an automobile and some other property, altogether worth about $1600. She asserted that the property belonged to her. The decision of the court was that it belongs to the estate.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.

GRUNION HUNTERS HAVE GREAT SPORT

Arriving right on scheduled time, the frisky little grunion came up onto Orange county beaches last night and furnished some great sport for the hundreds of people who were on hand. There was a large number of people on the Balboa sandpits and at Serra was also a large crowd. Joe Skidmore, member of a Laguna Beach party at Serra, said that everybody who waited for the tide got all the fish they wanted.

Tonight, according to Vic Walker's calculations, is the banner grunion night, and even more people will be out for the sport than last night.

Tonight's high tide, 5 feet five inches, is due at 10:59 o'clock, and the best sport, according to the dopesters, will be between 11 and 12 o'clock.

ARCHITECT WILL BE CHOSEN BY HOTEL BOARD ON MONDAY

George B. Shattuck is Named as Trustee to Succeed
Andrew Getty

At a meeting of the trustees of the proposed new tourist hotel next Monday an architect is to be selected from among a number now under consideration.

During the last two weeks the trustees have been looking over suggestions offered by a number of Los Angeles architects, and a decision will be reached Monday afternoon as to who shall be designated as the man to prepare the plans for the hotel.

This week Andrew Getty resigned as a member of the board of trustees of the hotel fund, and George B. Shattuck was appointed by the remaining trustees to take Getty's place. Getty moved away from Santa Ana about a year ago.

The hotel fund has not been fully raised, but the trustees are proceeding with preliminary plans in the belief that the necessary amount will be available by the time building details can be completed to the point where actual construction work can start.

A tourist hotel will mean a great deal to the future advancement of this city and those who have not yet taken their share of the units in the hotel company should not longer delay their support of the project.

What a Good Hotel Means
Financial men of the city who have not given aid to the hotel by subscribing to the fund should ponder over the following suggestions as to what a good hotel means to a city:

The hotel is the foremost public utility of any town.

It is the organized host to the town's visitors.

A town without a good hotel is like a private house without a spare room for company.

As we travel over the country all of us remember those cities with good hotels, just as we remember those friends whose hospitality affords us comfort and pleasure.

There is a more certain profit for any town in encouraging a bad hotel to become good, and a good hotel to become better, than in any other line of effort.

At some time or other every town that wants to grow organizes a booster's committee which goes through the motions of trying to interest outside capital to the point of making the town the site of new industrial enterprises.

Free land, exemption from taxes, and even capital, are offered these outsiders.

The trouble with this method of boosting is that it starts at the wrong place.

First Essential Improvement
The first essential improvement is self improvement, and the proper place to begin improving is right at home—with the hotel.

Of course, many hotels are better than their towns, but in that case the town ought to pinch itself and encourage the hotel, and take advantage of the facilities it offers for helping the town to grow.

In other instances, where the hotel needs improving, the trouble is usually lack of capital.

No town can afford not to advance capital to enable its hotel or hotels to clean up, brush up, and spruce up.

The cost of modernizing a hotel is not a matter for consideration. The question is: What will be the cost if we don't?

With an up-to-date hotel, a town can think of inviting outside capital. Until then its efforts are wasted. One night and one meal in a backsliding hotel will drive away more prospective capital than the booster's committee can dig up in a month.

Then, too, every town should remember that it isn't so much what citizens say as what outsiders say, that makes the best advertisement.

A traveling man in a Pullman smoker does a lot of talking, and if he is grouchy because of a bad night in a bad hotel he will leave nothing unsaid. The same man, pleased with a town because of a good hotel, is a walking advertisement of it.

Influence is Good
But it is not alone in its influence

COMBINE EASTER MORN SERVICES OF LEAGUERS, ENDEAVORERS

Young People's Societies to Unite in Observance
at Red Hill

There will be no Easter morning service at Hewes Park on Sunday by the Epworth Leaguers of Santa Ana and Orange, this plan having been abandoned upon suggestion of Rev. John Oliver.

The Leaguers have decided to combine in the County Christian Endeavor Easter service at Red Hill Sunday morning at 7 o'clock, and all League members are being requested to attend that annual service, which has in the past been largely attended.

While not attracting the thousands that throng to Mount Rubidoux for the annual Easter morning service, it is believed that a large number of people from Santa Ana and vicinity will be on hand Sunday morning at 7 o'clock at Red Hill, east of Santa Ana, at the annual Easter service held by the Orange County Christian Endeavor Union.

This early morning meeting has been held for the past two years by the young people of this section of the county, and is growing each year in interest and in numbers of those who wish to attend.

An after-the-war Easter message will be brought by Rev. F. T. Porter, pastor of the First Christian Church of this city. Opportunity will also be given for participation voluntarily by the young people who will attend. Special instrumental and vocal music has been arranged.

"I believe everyone finding it possible to meet with us will feel abundantly repaid for the effort," declared J. A. Henderson, Jr., president of the County Union, this morning. "The inspiration of the hills and the crisp morning air gives one a fine impetus for the further worship of the day commemorating the resurrection of our Lord. Many of our young people have been helped by these meetings in the past, and I believe many who have not already attended will be on hand tomorrow morning to join in the service."

How to Reach Red Hill
To those who are not familiar with the best route to use in reaching Red Hill, it has been suggested that they go east on First street to the end of that street, then northeast on Newport road to the road running east at the large sign reading "Orangeview Ranch." This road leads directly to the hill.

Autoists are warned against attempting to drive to the top of the hill. The road is rough and narrow, and many who will walk up the grade, will be very much inconvenienced if fat few permit in driving their cars to the summit.

It has been suggested that church people who are planning to go, and have extra seats in their automobiles, drive by their own churches and take any who are there and have no means of conveyance. In this way, it is pointed out, everyone who wishes to make the trip will be provided for.

Yorba Linda Observance
Yorba Linda will present its second annual open-air celebration Sunday, when special services will be conducted at the mountain top in Linda Vista Park. Here it is planned to open the program just at sunrise, with a prayer by Rev. John A. Shaw and a Scriptural reading by Thomas B. Welch. Roy Knight will give a cornet solo, "The Holy City," and Miss Dorothy Dukes of Los Angeles will sing "Hail Joyous Morn" and "Arise to Greet the Dawn."

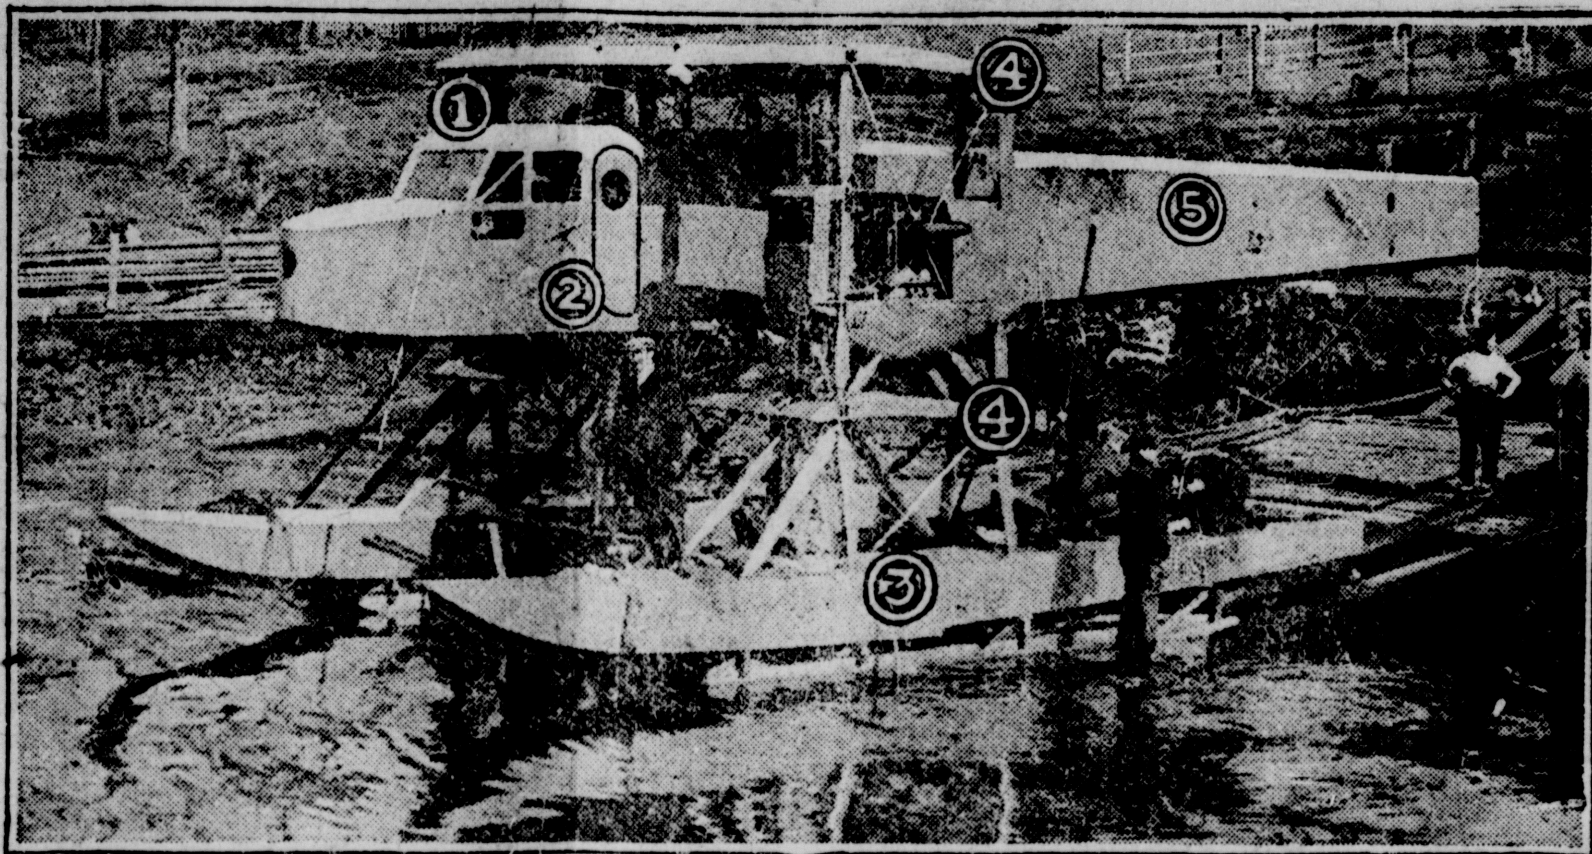

The principal address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Marsh of the Congregational Church; the audience will join in singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," and Rev. Ray Carter will pronounce the benediction.

At Fullerton, the Board of Trade has sponsored a movement to hold a sunrise service on one of the near-by hills. L. E. Plumber, supervising principal of the high school, has the affair in charge, and has arranged an attractive and inspiring program.

San Diego Service
Mt. Helix, near San Diego, will be the scene of the second annual Easter observance in that locality. A greater effort has been put forward this year than ever before, and a program of excellent merit has been prepared.

Other Southern California mountain-top services will be held as usual at Mt. Rubidoux, at Riverside, beginning at 6 a. m.; at Eagle Rock; at Mt.

Cox Wins; Lt. Gordon to Serve Ten Days In Jail

Lieut. H. B. Gordon of the United States Naval Air Station at San Diego must serve the ten-day sentence imposed upon him by Justice Cox of Santa Ana on March 1, for speeding fifty-four miles an hour.

The Secretary of the Navy has ordered that Lieut. Gordon, hitherto withheld from the sheriff, be turned over to the civil authorities. A deputy sheriff will leave today for San Diego, and probably by noon tomorrow Lieut. Gordon will begin serving his sentence here.

The effort of Lieut. Gordon to defeat the justice's court order has proven unavailing, and "Judge" Cox has scored another speeding victory.

Lieut. Gordon was arrested in February by motorcycle officers who testified that he was travelling at the rate of fifty-six miles an hour.

Gordon was given the sentence that Justice Cox always gives when a man is convicted of going over fifty miles an hour—ten days.

The naval aviator was taken by surprise. He had expected to get off with a fine. In order to gain time to get his bearings, he took an appeal, and was allowed to go without bail.

He failed to perfect his appeal and failed to show up for sentence.

The bench warrant was issued and was sent to the San Diego sheriff for service.

The naval air station authorities in writing refused to give Lieut. Gordon up, and declared they would not allow him to be subjected to the civil authorities unless an order to do so was received from the Secretary of the Navy.

Justice Cox decided to see the thing through, and on March 25 he wrote a letter laying the matter before the Secretary of the Navy.

In the letter Cox said that the evidence showed that Lieut. Gordon was not operating the automobile in government service.

Today Justice Cox received a letter from E. W. Spencer, Jr., lieutenant-commander U. S. Navy, commanding the naval air station at San Diego. In that letter Spencer states that he has received an order from the Secretary of the Navy reading as follows:

"You are hereby authorized to surrender Lieut. Gordon to the civil authorities upon presentation of warrant in due form and in proper hands."

"You will inform Justice Cox of this action in order that the proper steps may be taken by the civil authorities to secure the custody of Lieut. Gordon."

Lieut. Com. Spencer directs that Lieut. Gordon be returned to San Diego immediately after his sentence is completed.

Four Men Plan to Travel Across Atlantic From Halifax, N. S.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Captain Hugo Sundstedt hopes to win undying fame and $100,000 in prize money by being the first aviator to bridge the ocean.

His "Sunrise," caravel of the air, may become as famous as Columbus' "Santa Maria."

Captain Sundstedt is a Swedish aviator of wide experience, 31 years old. He is backed by Christopher Hannevig, a Norwegian, financier with offices in New York.

Sundstedt's proposed route is from Newark bay to Halifax, N. S., and from there direct to London. He will take two mechanics and one passenger.

BLACK EYE BEAN GROWERS POOL 42,000 BAGS HOLD-OVER

Indications Are They Will Keep Product for Mid-
Summer Prices

The blackeye bean growers of Orange county have agreed to pool their beans. Present indications are that they will hang on to their hold-over crop, about 42,000 bags, until mid-summer.

A decision to enter into a pool and perfect an organization to handle the pool was reached at a conference held yesterday by fifteen growers of the south end of the county. A. J. Crookshank, president of the First National Bank, presided, and W. C. Jerome, county auditor, was secretary of the meeting.

The situation was talked over in detail. Indications are that the coming crop will be light. Most of the growers who expressed themselves yesterday said that since they have had to hold their beans as long as they have, they can hold a few months longer, if there is any prospect for better prices by so doing. While that was the sentiment expressed, the handling of the pool is to be entirely in the hands of a committee of three, John Osterman, W. J. Cheney and W. C. Jerome, which committee is to have full authority to dispose of the beans whenever it sees fit and at whatever prices it accepts.

The blackeyes held by the Orange county men are the best there are in the state. Injury from weevil has been slight, and the beans can be held as well as any in the state.

At yesterday's meeting arrangements were made for the drawing up of an agreement to be signed by the blackeye holders. This agreement will be drawn up Monday. At yesterday's meeting a talk upon the bean situation was made by J. M. Waterman of the J. M. Waterman Selling Agency.

Scissors and knives sharpened; umbrellas cleaned at Hawley's.

FULLERTON SOLDIER GETS GOOD POSITION

FULLERTON, April 18.—Leland Pickering, a graduate of the Fullerton Union High School and Junior College, and who during the war was a member of the naval aero squadron stationed at Seattle, Wash., and a student at Stanford University, has received a most flattering opportunity from the Daniels & Wilson Music Company of New York, the largest music house in the United States.

Mr. Pickering has been directing both the plays and the operas which have been produced by Stanford University for the last two years, and because of unusual ability was recommended to Daniels & Wilson Music Company by Dr. Wilbur, president of Stanford, and Mr. Thurston of the Leland Stanford estate.

Mr. Pickering leaves Stanford in a fortnight to travel throughout the Northwest en route to New York, which city he expects to reach in June.

After a short period at the offices of the company he leaves for a tour of the southern and middle western states, reaching New York again in December, where he will undoubtedly be permanently located, filling a very responsible position as manager of one of the departments and enjoying its opportunity and reward.

TALBERT PROBES BOLSHEVIK SEAT ROAD CHANGES; WESTMINSTER IN BRITAIN IS DISCOVERED

Petition Asks Walnut be Cut to 60 Feet Width, Part of Maple Abandoned

Directing Body of the Shop Steward Movement Holds Secret Meetings

WESTMINSTER, April 18.—Superintendent T. B. Talbert, of Huntington Beach, was here Wednesday viewing two street changes which are asked for in petitions now before the supervisors awaiting their action. Walnut street running between the properties of E. G. Stone and G. E. Frances is asked to be narrowed from 100 feet to 60 feet. That part of Maple street passing between the railroad track and the road running north and south past the Presbyterian Church south of Miss Viola Wright's place is petitioned to be abandoned.

An interesting program for a Farm Bureau meeting Wednesday evening at the school hall did not materialize as owing to insufficient advertising no audience appeared. No one seemed to know about it in time to go. The Farm Advisor is under the impression that the farmers of this section are not interested. Let the meeting be well advertised beforehand and remove this impression by a good attendance.

A TWICE-TOLD TALE

One of Interest to Our Readers
Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of a Santa Ana man is confirmed after seven years:
P. G. Eichison, retired merchant, 826 Garfield St., says: "I was troubled by a dull pain in the small of my back. When I remained in a stooping position very long, I was sure to suffer worse. Doan's Kidney Pills being recommended for such complaints, I tried them. They relieved the trouble and I have had no trace of it since."
NEARLY EIGHT YEARS LATER
Mr. Eichison said: "The cure which I spoke of in my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills has proven to be a permanent one."

By EDWIN W. HULLINGER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, April 17.—The United Press has discovered the seat of English Bolshevism.

Its unofficial capital is a little paper-cluttered suite of two tiny chambers, up three flights of narrow, winding stairs from a dingy little blind spur street in the heart of London.

Here the National Administrative Council, the Bolshevik directing body of the Shop Stewards movement, holds its secret sittings.

In one of these rooms, the smaller of the two, "Billy" Watson, councilor and veteran shop steward's leader, told the story of English Bolshevism—told it as he stood beside the caved-in fireplace.

"The Shop Steward movement arose in England largely from war conditions," he explained. "Dora (the Englishman's pet name for the Defense of the Realm Act) hobbled the regular union officials, compelling them to submit all complaints to boards of arbitration. These boards were generally extremely slow.

"The rank and file—the men actually in the shops—got impatient. The injustices continued during the delays. They sub-organized on their own responsibility. They elected shop stewards.

"These shop stewards were men from the bench. They met in working clothes. Delay was just as disastrous to them as to their fellow-workers.

"They acted, while the regular trade union officials, constitutionalists (he always pronounced the word as if it carried a certain reproach) waited for arbitration.

"When the war ended the shop stewards decided not to wait longer. They began direct action.

"In the meanwhile these shop stewards committees in all parts of the country had been affiliating in a powerful national socialistic organization, of which the national Administrative Council is the head."

"I do not know whether Bolshevism will spread to America or not," continued, "perhaps not. Industrial conditions seem to be better there than in Europe."

Watson said he worked all day long in the shop as a machinist and then came up here in his office to work late into the night organizing, planning, arguing for this new shevistic organization he was helping to create.

"We admit some transitory stage will be necessary," Watson continued, "but our ultimate aim is communism. For instance, our present fight is for shorter working hours. The wage question is not important. Present wages are satisfactory.

"But we hope eventually to abolish the wage system altogether for a communistic exchange of products. Lenin intends to develop that in Russia, you know.

"We believe in the Bolshevik philosophy. It is probably true, of course, that not all of the men striking today have reached the point of subscribing openly to all of this program. Many of them do. I know it to be the platform of the leaders of the shop steward movement."

A tall young woman in a blue V. A. D. uniform entered excitedly with a newspaper telling of riots and the arrest of Bolshevik agitators.

"They may suppress us for a while," she cried, her eyes snapping, "but they can't suppress the idea. It will only blaze out again somewhere else."

Watson read, smiled, buttoned his overcoat.

"No," he said deliberately, "the idea is going to play a big role in the history of England."

CYPRESS TO HAVE NEW PAVED STREET

CYPRESS, April 18.—Cypress is going to have a new paved street running north and south in front of the Cypress store. Money for the work has been donated by the farmers along the road and surveyors were at work on the street this week. The present dirt road is rough and full of holes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bradley has as guest for the weekend little Margaret Smith, granddaughter of Mrs. John Wertz of Whittier.

Will Musser has some fine cabbage this year. He says it is the finest stand he has ever had. He has in about twenty acres and as the price of cabbage is high, he will make a good sum. Mr. Musser's place was washed out by the flood and he is now starting up once more. Mrs. Musser's daughter-in-law is visiting here from Taft with her baby girl.

A. R. Bradley has a fine stand of potatoes on his place this year and is cultivating his best this week.

Thomas Morris has his incubators running and has hatched off this week about ten thousand baby chicks. He has quite a nice stand of barley and a fine place to raise chickens.

Mr. Peters has hatched in his incubators this season over twenty-five thousand baby chicks. He just hatched twenty-five thousand last Monday. He reports fine luck with them.

Cypress is quite a chicken locality and there are lots of chicken raisers throughout the county.

Sid Peagon has white chickens. Mrs. M. B. Peagon will have this week at home 600 little chicks.

Mrs. S. S. Scully and Mrs. O. P. Bunyard attended the F. A. U. convention in Los Angeles this week. They report a big crowd and lots of good things to eat and a fine business meeting.

He was on the ammunition wagons in France and with the Hospital Staff. He will probably arrive at Camp Kearny some time the latter part of this week. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gillison, live in Delhi.

Harry Covell has in 25 acres of oats and barley, 20 acres of alfalfa and is milking 25 cows. He has installed an electric pumping plant and is expecting to put in another right away. They have a new well and a 20-foot pit, and will have plenty of water.

The Path to Health

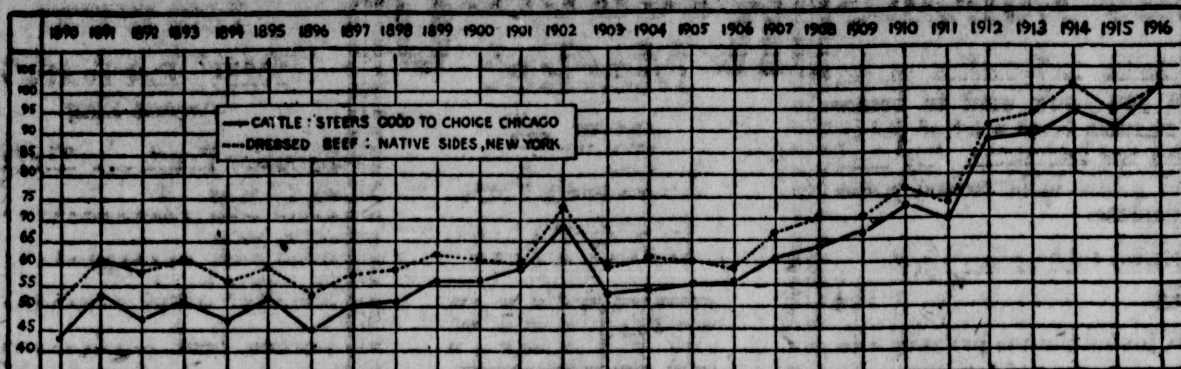

For many thousands of women the Path to Health has certainly been through Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When this great remedy was first introduced, and for many years after, skeptics frowned upon its curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by it has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands—doubt and skepticism have been swept away as by a mighty tidal wave, until today this purely vegetable medicine is recognized as the greatest remedy for woman's special ills in the world. This is because it is a wonderful tonic and reconstructor which acts directly and favorably upon the feminine organization and is a specific for that purpose.

Why Beefsteak Is High

This chart was copied from Bulletin No. 226, U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. It is the latest that has been issued. 100=1915 price.

Remember when beefsteak was 20c a pound?

Now it's 40 and 50 cents a pound.

Why?

This chart shows that the price packers have had to pay for cattle has gone up with the price received for beef.

In fact, it shows that the "spread" between cattle and beef prices has been gradually reduced during the past 30 years—owing to competition among packers, their increased efficiency, bigger volume, and elimination of waste.

The packer's profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound of meat has helped to narrow this "spread."

Increased farm-production costs have made higher cattle prices necessary.

on outsiders that a good hotel is important to a town.

Of even greater concern is a good hotel's influence on those in the town. The hotel is the common meeting ground—the one place where all sects, creeds and groups can get together.

A good hotel is the first aid to democracy—it is one of democracy's strongholds.

The social, political and business life of any progressive community center around its hotel. In the ballroom are held the social functions; around the banquet table men meet and get to know each other better, smoothing out their differences; in the meeting rooms groups of all shades of opinion gather and crystallize their ideas into action—all for the town's improvement and advancement.

As people come better to understand the true function of the hotel in the community life, there will be more and better hotels, and the pleasures and comforts of life will be multiplied many times.

If Overlooked By Gazoot Men, Call Up the Elks Hall

Did The Elks' Gazoot advertising solicitors miss you?

If so, they didn't intend to, so don't feel slighted. Just call 794 and they will sell you anything from a three-dollar space to a full page in this great, grand, and gloriously crazy publication, which is to be issued about April 25.

This is the message sent out today from Elks' hall. The crew of solicitors started out yesterday. When they said "Gazoot," each business man threw up his hands and opened the till, so naturally a great business was done and the Gazoot's financial success was assured. But the campaign is not over, and will not end until tomorrow, when it is expected that every business firm in town will have been given a chance to advertise in the "colymus" of the Gazoot.

There will be a general rehearsal at Elks' hall tonight for the minstrel and dancing festival April 29-30.

EVERYBODY VOTE ON BONDS FOR HARBOR

Fullerton Board of Trade Appoints Committee to Get Electors to Polls

Whether for "bonds-yes" or for "bonds-no," as the individual judgment may decide following a careful study of all pertinent facts in connection with all harbors in general and Orange County's proposed harbor in particular, every voter should cast his ballot on the proposed issue of $500,000 county harbor bonds at the election June 10, according to harbor enthusiasts throughout the county, who feel that the fullest possible expression of the people's will on this vital question should be made.

In order that all may be qualified to vote upon the proposition, the many county residents who are in favor of a local harbor are urging that returned soldiers, sailors and all new residents register at the county clerk's office before May 10, when registration for the bond election closes. Voters who have moved from one precinct to another since their last registration should also transfer their registration, so that as many people as possible will be qualified to vote upon the great harbor question.

Not only should everybody qualify to vote, but they should actually vote upon the issue June 10, so that there may be no doubt as to what the people of the county want, it is urged.

The Fullerton Board of Trade has taken this stand, and President Gregory has appointed a committee consisting of N. L. Marquand, G. W. Finch and S. N. Fuller to see that as large a vote as possible is gotten to the polls in Fullerton and vicinity on June 10. It was pointed out at the meeting that the Associated Chambers of Commerce, as a body, and the Fullerton Board of Trade, had officially gone on record as favoring the harbor bond issue.

ART GALLERY AT LAGUNA OPENS SATURDAY EVE

Twenty Painters Represented In Entirely New Display of Pictures at Beach

LAGUNA BEACH, April 18.—On Saturday evening, April 19, a large reception will be held in the Laguna Beach Art gallery, to mark its formal opening for the season. About twenty painters, many of whom have never exhibited their work in Laguna, will be represented, and none of the pictures of this "Easter Exhibition" have ever been hung in the gallery before.

Many of the artists will be present for the reception and people are expected from all over Southern California.

The necessity for a place in which to show their pictures has been felt, by artists who painted in Laguna, for many years, but it was not until last year that the idea of a gallery became even a possibility. Last year Edgar A. Payne conceived the idea of turning the old pavilion in the hotel garden, into an exhibition room. Almost at once, under his direction and with the enthusiastic co-operation of all the artists and art lovers then in Laguna, the necessary remodeling of the building was begun. Within a few weeks a Laguna Beach Art gallery was a reality, and on July 27 it was opened to the public with a reception similar to the one to be held Saturday night. Every month new pictures were hung and every month more than 1000 people came to see them.

This year, as last, the pictures will be changed every month, and each new exhibition will be opened with a reception. The gallery will be open every day after April 19, and every Saturday evening will be held "open house"—informal gatherings with several of the artists to act as hosts.

In the Easter exhibition, which will remain till May 30, are many interesting and beautiful pictures. Jack W. Smith's "Departing Day," Edgar Payne's "Mountain Vista," with its cool shadows and bit of sunlight; Helena Dunlap's "Street in Bruges;" Anna Hills' "Autumn Day" and a tiny sketch by Hanson Puthuff called "Sunset After Storm;" Elsie Palmer Payne's decorative studies, "Eucalypti" and "Looking Up," are all pictures that live in one's memory. But it is impossible for a layman to criticize the canvases.

The painters represented in this exhibition are: C. P. Ausin, Florence P. Boser, Maurice Braun, R. C. Colman, F. W. Currier, Henri G. CALUMET BAKING POWDER

"BEST BY TEST"

The greatest advancement ever made in the manufacture of baking powder—so perfectly made that you're always sure of the very best baking results. Its leavening strength never varies. The last spoonful as good as the first. No failures. It raises the quality of your bakings and reduces baking costs.

It is sold at a moderate price and you use only half as much as of most other powders.

A product of the world's largest, finest, most sanitary baking powder factory. Used in the U. S. Army and Navy—by the most eminent Domestic Scientists—in more homes than any other brand. Its superiority has made it America's leading seller.

CALUMET GRIDDLE CAKES

- | | |
|-----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| 2—Level cups flour | 1—Level tablespoon sugar |
| 2—Level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder | 2—Level tablespoons melted shortening |
| 1/2—Teaspoon salt | 2—Eggs, yolks |
| | 1 1/2—Cups milk or water |

How to Make Them: Mix dry ingredients in flour. Beat egg yolks and melted shortening in the liquid, add only a part of the liquid, mix until smooth. Then add gradually the balance of the liquid until batter is of the proper consistency. According to the strength of the flour more or less liquid is required. Bake on hot griddle well greased.

Paste in your Recipe Book for future reference.

Have You Noticed This?

When you buy a pound of Calumet you get a full pound—16 oz. Some high priced baking powders are now being put on the market in 12-oz. cans instead of a pound. Be sure you are getting a pound when you want it. No short weights with Calumet.

FORTIETH DIVISION ABOUT DEMOBILIZED

The twenty-five or thirty thousand men who received their fighting training at Camp Kearny in the Fortieth Division organization have been almost completely demobilized. The demobilization of the organization is so near completion that Major General F. S. Armstrong, who commanded the division, has taken his departure for Camp Jackson, leaving the few remaining members of the division still in service to be released by others.

The Fortieth was a replacement division and did not get into action as a complete unit. Some men and a few units went into battle. The casualties were very light.

All of the Orange county men who went to Kearny in the early drafts, and members of Company L, were drilled under command of General Strong.

Then, for the liver and bowels nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These are little, sugar-coated pills, composed of Mayapple, leaves of aloe, root of jalap—things that Nature grows in the ground.

Opden, Utah—"During expectancy I suffered a severe nervous break-down. Became very weak, was nauseated and sick all the time. My mother advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After the first few doses I could eat, something I had not done for some time. I kept on taking it and had practically no suffering and a fine large baby, weighing eleven pounds. I would advise all prospective mothers to take Favorite Prescription." They could take nothing better."

Chow Time in a Cassiar Hunting Camp

The End of a Perfect Day

Thirteen American hunters of big game went into the Cassiar District of British Columbia during 1918, and came out well satisfied. J. Frank Gallbreath, who outfits most of the Cassiar hunting parties, made a record of the game killed last year and the official measurements thereof. This record shows the total as 13 moose, 25 caribou, 16 goats, 27 sheep and six bears. That means a moose to every gun and two caribou to each hunter with but one exception.

Two of the hunters were women—city dwellers at that—and their records are something to brag about. Mrs. Miller, of Salt Lake City, brought down one moose, two caribou and two sheep, while Mrs. Mead, of Chicago, bagged one moose, two caribou, one sheep and the ONLY grizzly of the season. The finest pair of moose antlers fell to William N. Beach of New York, their measurements read, "Spread, 62 inches; Palm, 30x15; Points, 24." G. A. Pemberton of Denver walked off with the prize caribou head, its antlers having a spread of 47 1/2 inches, length 51 1/2 inches, and 26 points.

The facts that the Cassiar District borders on the Arctic Circle and is not easy of access are no drawbacks from the sportsman's point of view. On the contrary they enhance its desirability because they preserve it from any great influx of hunters and insure fine sport for the fortunate few who hunt there.

To reach this stronghold of big game one travels by Canadian Pacific boat from Vancouver to Wrangell, thence by launch up the Stikine River to the town of Telegraph Creek. This is the outfitting post, and complete outfits, including anything and everything from a can of beans to an Indian guide, will be provided by either Mr. Gallbreath or the Hudson's Bay Company. As the season opens on Sept. 1st, it behooves hunting parties to reach Telegraph Creek not later than August 22nd in order that they may arrange their outfits and get started in ample time. Sheep and goats are hunted first, then caribou and lastly, moose. Bears may be shot all through the season.

The author begins at once with practical chapters on paper, board, easel, etc., and then proceeds from elementary instructions to the difficulties of complicated work, giving helpful hints of what he has found most useful. The book is illustrated with reproductions of the masterpieces of the old English water color school.

ANAHEIM MOTOR
DEALERS MAY
HOLD SPEED
CONTESTS

Memorial Day Auto Events
Under Consideration by Agents of City

Anaheim may go on the map as the center of a big annual Decoration Day automobile race. The matter of establishing a course there and hanging up prizes for drivers is now under consideration by some of the live dealers of Santa Ana's neighbor to the north. It is proposed to make the contests for amateurs only, and thus attract interest among auto owners throughout the southland.

While nothing definite as yet has been done discussion has brought out the suggestion that an event of 25 miles for Fords only would be a good drawing card. A stock-car event for machines other than Fords and with limitations on cylinder displacement, and a free-for-all of 50 miles are among the contests proposed.

Those who are discussing the race are enthusiastic and believe that it could be made an annual event that would draw thousands to Anaheim
each year at the time of the program.
Prizes that will interest the more daring of the amateurs will be offered.

PEACE MISSION
ASKS SUPPORT OF FIFTH LOAN

Urges American People to Finish the Job by Taking the Victory Loan

Four members of the American peace mission in France, Secretary of State
Robert Lansing, Col. E. M. House,
General Tasker N. Bliss and Henry
White, have sent this message to the American people urging support of the Victory Loan:

"TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE:
"We have had the opportunity here in France to see and realize the magnitude of the accomplishment of our country in this war and the magnificent spirit with which this great task has been carried through to a triumphant issue.

"What has been done and what remains to be done before normal conditions are restored demand your continued and united support with the same spirit of self sacrifice and of determination as that which was manifested by the nation while the German armies faced our men at the Marne, and in the Champagne, at St. Mihiel and in the Argonne. We must not relax our efforts until every soldier of the republic is landed on the soil of America.

"To finish this mighty task imposes upon the government of the United States a great financial burden. The Victory Liberty Loan must thrive. If it should fail it would indicate that the Nation is willing to leave its task uncompleted.

"To secure the ideals for which Americans fought and died this great demand on national patriotism and united effort should meet a generous and universal response. Let us do our duty to the end.

"ROBERT LANSING,
"HENRY WHITE,
"E. M. HOUSE,
"T. N. BLISS."

NAVY BANDS WILL
SPUR PATRIOTISM
IN VICTORY DRIVE

Mare Island Commandant Offers Marines and Jackies to Aid Fifth Loan

Captain Edward L. Beach, commandant of Mare Island Navy Yard, Mare Island, Cal., who was in command of the United States dreadnaught New York in the North Sea at the time the German navy was turned over under the terms of the armistice, has offered three of the crack service bands stationed at Mare Island for use during the Victory drive.

One of the bands will travel on the trophy train which will tour all of the seven states in the Twelfth District and the other two bands will be used in cities within a day's journey of Mare Island. One of these bands is the famous sixty-piece Marine Band and the other is the forty-piece Jackie Band.

Paymaster Ralph Phelps, U. S. N., has been placed in charge of the itinerary to be mapped out for the two bands which will not travel on the train and any local committee desiring to make use of either of these two bands during the drive should communicate with him.

NOTICE TO AUTO OWNERS
To get acquainted and introduce our quick method of painting autos which is not new but the same as the large factories use, we will make a great reduction on painting all cars during the month of April.

We paint your car the same as new in four or six days. All cars are run in the oven and each coat baked thoroughly.

Doctor Prescribes Vinol

For Schoolboy To Create Strength
After Sickness

VINOLAND, N. J.—"I am a schoolboy, 17 years of age, and typhoid fever left me weak and debilitated, so I had to stay out of school three months—my doctor prescribed Vinol. It has built up my strength and now I am feeling fine."—S. E. Bunce.

The reason Vinol was so successful in this boy's case, is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones, and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened, rundown system, make rich, red blood and create strength. Rowley Drug Com-

DIAMOND STARS EXPERT SHOTS AT TRAPS

Many Baseball Men Use Guns During Leisure Times; Keeps Them Alert

CHIEF BENDER is a sport that appeals to the intelligent baseball player.

It is a sport that relieves the tension and brushes away the cobwebs.

Baseball and trapshooting have much in common. To succeed in either, it is necessary to be mentally alert, to have keen eyes, and to always have your wits about you. The keenest ball players as a rule make the best clay target shooters.

Just as soon as the gates are locked on the ball parks the great majority of the ball players bring out the following piece, and after oiling it up and giving it the once over they spend a few days in the fields.

Charles Albert (Chief) Bender is possibly the best of the trapshooting ball players. During the off-season Bender shoots on the Pennsylvania Railroad team, in the Philadelphia Trapshooters' League and with the Biedeman Club, of Camden, N. J. Bender is the only shooter who has broken 50 straight twice in the league series, and his average is about the best in the league.

Joe Bush, the Red Sox hurler, is another who shoots in the Philadelphia Trapshooters' League matches and at the Biedeman Club. In previous years Bob Shawkey, the Yankee pitcher, and Grover Cleveland Alexander, the pitching ace of the National League, did a lot of shooting at the Biedeman Club. Shawkey, too, shot with the Glen Wilcox team, in the Philadelphia Trapshooters' League.

While they were members of the Phils, Billy Killefer, Co-ar Dugger and Eddie Burns did a lot of shooting. Christy Mathewson, assistant manager of the Giants, is a great booster for the trapgun sport. Matty was one of the quartet of ball players that toured the country several years ago giving trapshooting exhibitions. The other three on this tour were Chief Bender, Harry Davis, of the Athletics, and Otis Crandall, the pitcher.

Joe Jackson, Tyrus Cobb and Tris Speaker, a wonderful outfield, are all high-class shooters.

Possibly the best shot in the world is a former ball player, Lester German. German left the Giants many years ago when he was a great pitcher to become a professional trapshot, and for a generation he has been rated as one of the best.

Santa Ana Wins, 7-6; To Play Riverside Tomorrow

Santa Ana, 7; Fullerton, 6.
Thus ended an exciting and hotly-contested baseball game on Poly field yesterday afternoon, with the result of the game in doubt up to the last half of the ninth inning.

Fullerton started out strong, and had annexed four runs at the end of the fourth inning, while a goose-egg still represented the Santa Ana winners. And then things began to happen. With a Santa Ana man on first and another on third, Callahan slammed out a home run in the fifth, making three runs for Santa Ana. Then Fullerton got another score, Fullerton 5, Santa Ana 3.

In the seventh a Santa Ana hit brought in a man from third, and sent another runner from first to third. In the shuffle, the Fullerton catcher pegged the ball to second, which was not covered, and two more runs came in. Score: Santa Ana, 6; Fullerton, 5. In the ninth, Fullerton took another, tying the score, and in the last half Santa Ana grabbed one more and won, 7 to 6.

Hillyard on third and Smith on first were shining lights for Santa Ana, dexterously grabbing many "impossible" ones. Hargraves of Anaheim was umpire. Only three errors were chalked against Santa Ana.

The Santa Ana line-up and batting order: Hillyard, 1st; Easley, 2nd; Neal Roney, 3d; Don Hillyard, 3b; Hillyard Tyrrell, 4; Tavis Westgate, 1f; Terry Callahan, rf; Arthur Perkins, 2b; Don Smith, 1b; Marshall Huffee, p; Clarence Brown replaced Westgate in the field during the eighth inning.

BILL MAY MANAGE TEAM THAT TAKES PENNANT ON COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Not that Charley, Ed, Eddie or Walter lack managerial ability, but it looks like a "Bill" is going to win the Coast League pennant this season.

For instance, according to Tom Laird, baseball authority, there is Bill Killefer of Los Angeles, whose club is supposed to be stronger than others at the present time. And if Bill Killefer's team can't turn the trick, perhaps Bill Essick's can. And should Bill Killefer's and Bill Essick's teams fail to stick at the top, there is no telling what Bill Rodgers' aggregation might accomplish.

And last, and almost last, is Bill Clymer, who has just entered the league as the manager of the Seattle club. Of course, Bill got off to a bad start for the first week, but so did the allies. Theoretically speaking, continues Laird, what chance has a Charley, Walter, Del or Eddie got against four Bills?

ANGELENOS WILL VIE WITH ALL ATHLETES

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—A number of well known Pacific Coast athletes are in training for the coming American Expeditionary Force championships and Olympic games, soon to be held in Paris, according to advices received here today by the Bulletin from William Unmack, former official of the Pacific Athletic Association.

Among the men who will compete against the pick of athletes in the Allied armies are Lieut. Frank Baker and Harry Liversedge, both of the University of California; Howard Drew and Fred and Harrison Thompson, all of Los Angeles, and Stolz of Stanford.

WOMAN DANCER WILL WRESTLE JOHN HOLT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Miss Diana Watts, symbolic dancer, author and lecturer, will try to throw John Holt, University of California wrestler, in an exhibition which Miss Watts proposes to give at the Greek theater Monday.

Miss Watts will attempt to show the superiority of Greek physical culture over modern brawn.

OLYMPIC BASKETBALL MEN TO PLAY CALIF.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 18.—The San Francisco Olympic Club basketball team is ready to take on the University of California tonight in the second night's play of the A. A. U. national championships. The Olympics defeated the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A. last night by a score of 42 to 20. The play was lightning-like.

NORFOLK, Va., April 18.—Eight thousand fans watched McGraw's Giants fight twelve innings to a 4 to 3 victory over Griffith's Senators yesterday in the first extra inning game of the season. Johnson, pitching three innings, allowed only one Giant to pass first base. Craft worked the other nine. Benton and Smith worked for McGraw.

ROUND LEAGUE BASES

Gleichmann, Seattle; Sheely, Salt Lake.
Seven thousand and fifty-seven fans turned out in Oakland yesterday to watch the Acorns administer a 5 to 4 defeat to the Seals. It was the Oaks' first game at home. Mayor Davies opened the game by throwing the first ball. They're still looking for it. The Angels downed the Tigers, this time with the Bengals raring a blank. Score: Angels, 1; Tigers, 0. Sam Crawford, for the Seraphim, hit four in four trips, two of them being doubles. Gleichmann's homer decided the twelve innings between the Senators and Rainiers. With the score tied and one man on the base, Crawford's sack. Score: Seattle, 9; Sacramento, 7.
The Beavers weakened their hold on the bottom of the league standing by an 8 to 2 win over Salt Lake.
